LXIX. 'And whereas there is and may be Occasion for the marching and also for the quartering of 'the Royal Marine Forces when on shore:' Be it enacted, That during the Continuance of this Act, upon the Order or Orders in Writing in that Behalf under the Hand of the Lord High Admiral, or the Hands of Two or more of the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral, for the Time being, or upon the Order or Orders in Writing in that Behalf under the Hand of any Colonel Commandant or Commanding Officer of any Division of Royal Marines, it shall be lawful for all Constables and other Persons specified in this Act in England and Ireland, and they are hereby required, to billet the Officers and Marines, whether marching or otherwise, and all Staff and Field Officers Horses, and all Bât and Baggage Horses belonging to the Royal Marine Forces, when on actual Service, not exceeding for each Officer the Number for which Forage is or shall be allowed by Her Majesty's Regulations, in Victualling Houses and other Houses specified in this Act, taking care in Ireland not to billet less than Two Men in any One House; and they shall be received by the Occupiers of such Houses, and be furnished by such Victualler with proper Accommodation in such Houses, and with a separate Bed for each Marine, or if any Victualler shall not have sufficient Accommodation in the House upon which a Marine is billeted, then in some good and sufficient Quarters to be provided by such Victualler in the immediate Neighbourhood, and in England with Diet and Small Beer, and with Stables, Hay, and Straw for such Horses as aforesaid, paying and allowing for the same the several Rates hereinafter provided; and at no Time when Marines are on March shall any of them be billeted above One Mile from the Place mentioned in the Route; and in all Places where Marines shall be billeted in pursuance of this Act, the Officers and their Horses shall be billeted in one and the same House, except in case of Necessity; and the Constables are hereby required to billet all Marines on their March in a just and equal Proportion upon the Keepers of all Houses within One Mile of the Place mentioned in the Route, although some of such Houses may be in the adjoining County, in like Manner in every respect as if such Houses were therein locally situated: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to extend to authorize any Constable to billet Marines out of the County to which such Constable belongs when the Constable of the adjoining County shall be present and undertake to billet the due Proportion of Men in such adjoining County; and no more Billets shall at any Time be ordered than there are effective Marines and Horses present to be billeted; all which Billets, when made out by such Constables, shall be delivered into the Hands of the Commanding Officer present, or to the Non-commissioned Officer on the Spot; and if any Person shall find himself aggrieved by having an undue Proportion of Marines billeted in his House, and shall prefer his Complaint, if against a Constable or other Person not being a Justice, to One or more Justices, and if against a Justice, then to Two or more

Justices

Justices within whose Jurisdiction such Marines are billeted, such Justices respectively shall have Power to order such of the Marines to be removed and to be billeted upon other Persons as they shall see Cause; and when any Horses belonging to the Officers of Her Majesty's Royal Marine Forces shall be billeted upon the Occupiers of Houses who shall have no Stables, then, upon a written Requisition of the Officer commanding such Marines, the Constable is hereby required to billet the Horses upon some other Person having Stables by this Act liable to have Officers and Marines billeted upon them, and any Two or more Justices of the Peace may order a proper Allowance to be paid by the Persons relieved to the Persons receiving such Horses, or to be applied in the furnishing the requisite Accommodation; and the Commanding Officer may exchange any Man or Horse billeted in any Place with another Man or Horse billeted in the same Place, for the Convenience or Benefit of the Service, provided the Number of Men and Horses do not exceed the Number at that Time billeted on such Houses; and the Constables are hereby required to billet such Men and Horses so exchanged accordingly; and it shall be lawful for any Justice, at the Request of any Officer or Non-commissioned Officer commanding any Marines requiring Billets, to extend any Route, or enlarge the District within which Billets shall be required, in such Manner as shall appear to be most convenient to Her Majesty's Service: Provided always, that to prevent or punish all Abuses in billeting Marines it shall be lawful for any Justice, within his Jurisdiction, by Warrant or Order under his Hand, to require any Constable to give him an Account in Writing of the Number of Officers and Marines who shall be quartered by such Constable, together with the Names of the Persons upon whom such Officers and Marines are billeted, stating the Street or Place where such Persons dwell, and the Signs, if any, belonging to their Houses; and it shall be lawful for Constables to billet Officers and Marines in Scotland according to the Provisions of the Laws in force in Scotland at the Time of its Union with England; and no Officer shall be obliged to pay for his Lodging where he shall be regularly billeted, except in the Suburbs of Edinburgh: Provided always, that no Justice being an Officer of Royal Marines shall directly or indirectly be concerned in billeting or appointing Quarters under this Act.

LXXI. And be it enacted, That for the regular Provision of Carriages for the Royal Marine Forces and their Baggage on their Marches in Great Britain and Ireland, all Justices of the Peace within their several Jurisdictions, being duly required thereunto by Order of the said Lord High Admiral, or Two or more of the Commissioners for executing the said Office of Lord High Admiral, for the Time being, or any Colonel Commandant or Commanding Officer of a Division of Royal Marines, shall, on the Production of such Order to them, or any One or more of them, by the Officer or Non-commissioned Officer of the Party of Marines so ordered to march, issue a Warrant to any Constable having Authority to act in any Place from, through, near, or to which such Marines shall be ordered to march, (for each of which Warrants a Fee of One Shilling only shall be paid,) requiring him to provide the Carriages, Horses, Oxen, and Drivers therein mentioned, (allowing sufficient Time to do the same,) specifying the Places from and to which the said Carriages shall travel, and the Distance between the Places, for which Distance only so specified Payment shall be demanded, and which Distance shall not, except in Cases of pressing Emergency, exceed the Day's March prescribed in the Order of Route, and shall in no Case exceed Twenty-five Miles; and the Constables receiving such Warrant shall order such Persons as they shall think proper, having Carriages, to furnish the requisite Supply, who are hereby required to furnish the same accordingly; and in case sufficient Carriages cannot be procured within the proper Jurisdiction, any Justice of the next adjoining Jurisdiction shall, by a like Course of Proceeding, supply the Deficiency; and in order that the Burden of providing Carriages may fall equally, and to prevent Inconvenience arising from there being no Justice residing near the Place where Marines may be quartered on the March, the Justice or Justices residing nearest to such Place shall cause a List to be made out, at least once in every Year, of all Persons liable to furnish such Carriages, and of the Number and Description of their said Carriages, which List shall at all seasonable Hours be open to the Inspection of the said Persons, and shall by Warrant under his Hand authorize the Constables within his Jurisdiction to give Orders to provide Carriages without any special Warrant from him for that Purpose, which Orders shall be valid in all respects; and all Orders for such Carriages shall be made from such Lists in regular Rotation, so far as the same can be done.

Exemption from Tolls.

LXXVI. And be it enacted, That all Officers and Marines, being in proper Uniform, Dress or Undress, and their Horses, (but not when passing in any private or hired Vehicle,) and all Recruits marching by Route, and all Prisoners under Military Escort, and all Carriages and Horses belonging to Her Majesty, or employed in Her Service, under the Provisions of this Act, when employed in conveying Persons or Baggage, or returning therefrom, shall be exempted from the Payment of any Duties and Tolls on embarking or disembarking from or upon any Pier, Wharf, Quay, or Landing Place, or passing Turnpike Roads or Bridges, otherwise demandable by virtue of any Act already made or hereafter to be made; and if any Toll Collector shall demand or receive Toll from any Marine Officer or Marine who shall be in proper Uniform, Dress or Undress, or for their Horses, and who by this Act is exempted from Payment thereof, or from any Recruits marching by Route, or from any Prisoners under Military Escort, or for any Carriages or Horses belonging to Her Majesty, or employed in Her Service, under the Provisions of this Act, when conveying Persons or Baggage, or returning therefrom, every such Collector shall for every such Offence be liable to a Penalty not exceeding Five Pounds; provided that nothing herein contained shall exempt any Boats, Barges, or other Vessels employed in conveying the said Persons, Horses, Baggage, or Stores along any Canal from Payment of Tolls in like Manner as other Boats, Barges, and Vessels are liable thereto, except when employed in Cases of Emergency as herein herein mentioned; and that when any Officers or Marines on Service shall have Occasion in the March by Route to pass regular Ferries in Scotland, the Officer commanding shall be at liberty to pass over with his Marines as Passengers, paying for himself and each Marine One Half only of the ordinary Rate payable by Passengers, or he shall be at liberty to hire the Ferry Boat for himself and his Party, debarring all others for that Time, and shall in such Case pay only Half the ordinary Rate for such Boat.

Personal Representatives of deceased High Constable or Collector to deliver last Warrants to the Treasurer of the County, together with the Applotments made.

II. And be it enacted, That if any such Vacancy as aforesaid shall have occurred by the Death of the High Constable or Collector, the personal Representatives of the deceased High Constable or Collector shall, previous to such General or Special Sessions, as the Case may be, deliver over to the Treasurer of the County the Warrants issued by him to the said Collector, together with all Applotments that may have been made of the Sum or Sums specified in the said Warrant; and the Deputies appointed by the said High Constable or Collector are hereby required to attend at such General or Special Sessions, as the Case may be, and to produce and deliver to the said Justices Accounts of the several Sums received by them respectively under and by such Warrants and Applotments, specifying the Sum paid by each Person named in such Applotments, and the Sum still remaining due and unpaid, and the Names of the Persons by whom the same are owing; and each Deputy shall make an Affidavit before the said Justices (who are hereby authorized to take the same) of the Truth of such Accounts, which Accounts and Affidavits the said Justices shall also transmit to the Treasurer of the County; and in case any such personal Representative of such deceased High Constable or Collector, or any such Deputy or Deputies, shall neglect or refuse to deliver over the said Warrants and Applotments, and any Money or Monies received by them, and all Applotments or other Documents relating to the Collection of such Public Cess, or refuse to make the Affidavit, as directed by this Act, such personal Representative or Representatives, and Deputy or Deputies, shall forfeit the Sum of Fifty Pounds, to be recovered, in the Name of the Treasurer of the County, by Civil Bill, before the Assistant Barrister of such County, for the Use of such County.

When Monies collected have been duly paid over by personal Representatives, Grand Jury may allow them Poundage.

III. And be it enacted, That the personal Representatives of such High Constable or Collector, duly paying such Sum or Sums of Money as have been collected into the County Bank on or before the first Day of the next Assizes, and on his or their producing to the Grand Jury the Treasurer's Certificate of such Sum or Sums of Money having been so paid, it shall be lawful for the Grand Jury to present, without any previous Application to Presentment Sessions, a Sum not exceeding the Sum allowed by Law as Poundage on the Amount so paid into the County Bank, to be paid to the personal Representatives of such High Constable or Collector.

Grand Jury may present increased Poundage where Difficulties occur in the Collection.

IV. 'And whereas in certain Baronies and Portions of Baronies in some Counties of Ireland there is 'now considerable Difficulty in the Collection of the Public Money, and the said Sum of Nine-pence in 'the Pound has been found in certain Cases not to be sufficient Remuneration to the High Constable 'or Collector for his Trouble in collecting the same, and it is expedient, for a limited Time, to enable the 'Grand Jury, in Cases where such Difficulties occur, to present a larger Rate or Sum than Nine-pence in 'the Pound as Remuneration to such High Constable or Collector for such additional Trouble as afore-'said:' Be it therefore enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Grand Jury at any Assizes held after the passing of this Act, and before the End of the Year One thousand eight hundred and forty-nine, if they shall think fit, in Cases where such Difficulties shall occur in the Collection of the said Monies as aforesaid, to present, without previous Application to Presentment Sessions, a Sum not exceeding One Shilling in the Pound on the Amount of the Collection of such Monies from such Barony or Baronies where such Difficulties shall occur, to be paid to any such High Constable or Collector for his Trouble in collecting the same.

Bonds, &c. deemed good against Sureties as well as against High Constables or Collectors.

V. And be it enacted, That any Bond and Warrant of Attorney to confess Judgment of any High Constable or Collector, executed or purporting to be executed pursuant to the said recited Act or this Act, and any Judgment entered up on the same, shall be good and valid to all Intents and Purposes, as well against the said High Constable or Collector as his Sureties, whether the said Bond and Warrant shall have been given at the Assizes before the Grand Jury by whom such High Constable or Collector shall have been appointed, or before the Justices of the Peace at any General Quarter Sessions of the Peace, or any Adjournment thereof, or such Special Sessions as aforesaid, and whether such High Constable or Collector shall have been appointed by the Grand Jury at any Assizes, or at any Quarter Sessions, or Adjournment thereof, and shall have subsequently qualified and given such Security at a subsequent Quarter Sessions, or Adjournment thereof, or at such Special Sessions as aforesaid.

6 & 7 W. 4 c. 116.

VI. 'And whereas by the said recited Act of the Sixth and Seventh Years of His said late Majesty 'it is amongst other things enacted, that it shall be lawful for every Person duly authorized to collect and 'levy any Grand Jury Cess off any Barony, County of a City, or County of a Town, in default of Pay-

'ment of any such Grand Jury Cess by the Party chargeable there with within the Time therein specified, 'to prefer a Complaint to any Justice of the Peace of the County in which such Party may reside; and 'such Justice is empowered to summon such Party, and to direct Payment of such Money to such 'Collector, or to issue his Warrant for the Levy thereof by Distress and Sale of the Goods and Chattels 'of the Party complained against, as in the said recited Act more particularly mentioned: And whereas
1 & 2 Vict. c. 56. 'by an Act of the First and Second Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act for 'the more effectual Relief of the destitute Poor in Ireland, it is amongst other things enacted, that every 'Rate made under the Authority of the said Act now in recital on each Electoral Division shall and 'may be collected and levied, sued for and recovered, by such and the same Ways and Means as the 'Grand Jury Cess, or the Money applotted on the several Persons liable to pay the same, may be 'collected and levied: And whereas by an Act of the Sixth and Seventh Years of the Reign of Her
6 & 7 Vict. c. 92. 'present Majesty, intituled An Act for the further Amendment of an Act for the more effectual Relief 'of the destitute Poor in Ireland, it is amongst other things enacted, that any Rate or Rates made as 'therein mentioned on any Lessor in respect of any Property, whether occupied by One or more Occupiers, 'should be recovered by the Ways and Means therein mentioned, and, amongst others, that it should be 'lawful for the Collector to prefer a Complaint to any Justice of the Peace of the County in which such 'Lessor may reside; and such Justice is empowered to summon such Lessor so complained against to 'appear before him in Petty Sessions, and is also empowered to direct Payment of such Money to such 'Collector, and in default of Payment that it should be lawful for such Justice, or any Justice of the 'Peace for such County, to issue his Warrant for the Levy thereof by Distress and Sale of the Goods of 'such Lessor, as in the said Act more particularly mentioned; and it is by the said last-recited Act also 'enacted, that every Rate made under the Authority of the said Act now in recital, or the therein first-'recited Act, on any Electoral Division in the County or the County of the City of Dublin, and any 'Money authorized and directed to be levied under any Warrant for the levying of Poor Rate in the 'said County or the County of the City of Dublin, shall and may be collected and levied, sued for and 'recovered, by such and the same Ways and Means, and with the like Remedies and Powers in case of 'Nonpayment, as the Grand Jury Cess, or the Money applotted on the several Persons liable to pay the 'same, may be collected in any other County in Ireland: And whereas Doubts exist whether the Divi-'sional Justices of the Police District of Dublin Metropolis can be deemed to be Justices of the Peace 'of the County of the City of Dublin or for the County of Dublin within the said Police District so as 'to have or exercise Jurisdiction for the hearing of Complaints as to Nonpayment of Poor Rates or for 'the Recovery of Poor Rates within the said Police District, within the Meaning of such said recited Pro-'visions; and Doubts also exist whether the several Police Offices at which such Divisional Justices 'preside and officiate within the said Police District can be deemed to be Petty Sessions within the 'Meaning of the said last-recited Act or of the several Acts authorizing or directing any Proceedings to 'be taken by or before a Justice or Justices of the Peace at Petty Sessions, or before Justices of the 'Peace of a County, County of a City, County of a Town or Place, or before Two or more Justices when 'met or assembled;' for the Removal of such Doubts be it therefore enacted, That the several Divisional Justices of the Police District of Dublin Metropolis shall, for the Purposes of the said Acts of the First and Second Years of Her Majesty's Reign and of the Sixth and Seventh Years of Her Majesty's Reign, and of all and every other Act or Acts heretofore made or hereafter to be made with respect to the raising, levying, or enforcing Payment of any Rate for the Relief of the Destitute Poor in Ireland, have and exercise the same Powers, Authorities, and Jurisdiction within the Police District of Dublin Metropolis as any Justice or Justices of the Peace of any County has or have or can have or exercise within his or their respective County in respect to any Rates made or to be made for Relief of the Destitute Poor in Ireland; and that wherever, in any Act now in force or which shall hereafter be in force in Ireland, any Proceeding, Matter, or Thing is or shall be authorized or directed to be taken, entertained, inquired into, or done by a Justice or Justices of the Peace at Petty Sessions, or by Justices of the Peace of any County, County of a City, County of a Town or Place, or by Justices of the Peace, or any Two or more of them met and assembled, the said Divisional Justices of the Police District of Dublin Metropolis, or any One or more of them, shall have and shall and may exercise all such Powers and Authorities and Jurisdictions at the several Divisional Police Offices within such Police District of Dublin Metropolis at which such Divisional Justices or Justice shall at the Time be respectively presiding or officiating as any Justice or Justices at Petty Sessions, or any Justice or Justices as aforesaid, are or shall be authorized or directed to have or exercise within their respective Jurisdictions.

An Act to amend the Law of Imprisonment for Debt in Ireland, and to improve the Remedies for the Recovery of Debts and of the Possession of Tenements situate in Cities and Towns, in certain Cases. [22d July 1848.]

'WHEREAS it is expedient to limit the present Power of Arrest for Debts, Damages, Demands, or Costs under Process issuing from Courts of Law or Equity or Inferior Courts in Ireland:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the Day of the Commencement of this Act no Writ of Capias ad satisfaciendum, or other Writ, Process, or Warrant to arrest the Body of any Defendant in any Action or Suit, (Actions for malicious Prosecution, or for Deceit, Libel, Slander, Criminal Conversation, Seduction, or Breach of Promise of Marriage, only excepted,) shall be issued in Ireland, founded on a Judgment, Decree, or Order of any of the Superior Courts of Law or of any Inferior Courts in Ireland, when the Sum due or to be paid by or under such Judgment, Decree, or Order, exclusive of the Costs, if any, thereby recovered or ordered to be paid, shall not exceed the Sum of Ten Pounds; nor shall any Writ, Process, or Warrant to arrest the Body of any Plaintiff, Defendant, or other Person in any Action or Suit be issued, founded on any Judgment, Decree, or Order for the Recovery of Costs only, when such Costs due or to be paid shall not exceed the Sum of Ten Pounds; nor shall any Writ, Process, or Warrant issue to arrest the Body of any Plaintiff, Defendant, or other Person, founded on any Decree or Order of any Court of Equity, Ecclesiastical Court, or Court of Admiralty in Ireland, for the Payment of Money, whether consisting wholly or partly of Costs or otherwise, when the Sum due or to be paid shall not exceed the said Sum of Ten Pounds.

After Commencement of this Act, no Writ or Process for Arrest shall issue from certain Courts in Ireland for Debts or Sums not exceeding 10*l.*, save as herein excepted.

II. And be it enacted, That in case any such Writ, Process, or Warrant to arrest the Person (save in any of the Cases herein-before excepted) shall have issued before the said Day of the Commencement of this Act, founded on any such Judgment, Decree, or Order as aforesaid, when the Sum thereby due or to be recovered and paid shall not exceed the respective Sums specified in the several Cases herein-before mentioned, and such Writ, Process, or Warrant shall not have been executed before the said Day of the Commencement of this Act, such Writ, Process, or Warrant shall not, on or after the said last-mentioned Day, be executed against the Person of the Party against whom the same shall have issued.

Such Writs, &c. issued before Commencement of Act, but not executed, shall not be executed against the Person, save as herein excepted.

III. And

Persons in Custody on or after the Commencement of the Act under any such Writs, &c. for Sums not exceeding 10*l.*, shall be discharged on Application to Sheriff, &c.

Judgment, &c. to remain in force notwithstanding the Discharge of the Debtor.

III. And be it enacted, That in any Case in which any Person shall, on or before the said Day of the Commencement of this Act, be in Execution or in Custody under and by virtue of any such Writ, Process, or Warrant to arrest the Person, founded on any such Judgment, Decree, or Order of any of such Courts as aforesaid, (save in any of the Cases herein-before excepted,) when the Sum thereby ordered to be paid, and for which such Person shall be held in Custody, shall not exceed the respective Sums specified in the several Cases herein-before mentioned, it shall be lawful for the Sheriff, Gaoler, or Officer of any of such Courts as aforesaid in whose Custody such Person shall be detained, and he is hereby required, on the Application of such Person, to discharge him or her forthwith out of Custody, as to such Execution, Writ, Decree, or Order respectively, without Prejudice nevertheless to any other Right to detain such Person in Custody for any Cause for which he may lawfully be so detained: Provided also, that for and notwithstanding the Discharge of any Debtor or Party in manner aforesaid the Judgment, Decree, or Order whereupon any such Debtor or Party was taken or charged in Execution or arrested shall nevertheless remain and continue in force to the Intent and Purpose that the Judgment Creditor or Person obtaining such Decree or Order may have and take Remedy and Execution upon every such Judgment, Decree, or Order against the Property and Effects of any such Debtor or Party in such Manner and Form as such Creditor or Person obtaining such Decree or Order otherwise could or might have done in case such Debtor or Party had never been taken or charged in Execution or arrested upon such Judgment, Decree, or Order, and it shall be lawful for such Creditor or Person obtaining such Decree or Order to have and take such Remedy and Execution: Provided also, that in any of the Cases herein-before mentioned, whenever by the Law, Usage, or Practice of any Court in Ireland before the passing of this Act Process against the Person of any Debtor for any such Sum not exceeding Ten Pounds as aforesaid is now the only Process issued from such Court for the Recovery of any such Debt or Sum, it shall be lawful for such Court after the passing of this Act, instead of such Process against the Person, to issue a Process in the Nature of an Execution, Writ, Process, or Warrant against the Goods and Chattels of the Defendant or Debtor, and for the Seizure and Sale of the same in like Manner as such Process against the Person has heretofore been issued in such Cases.

When a Defendant, &c. is exempted from Arrest or discharged from Custody by virtue of this Act, the Plaintiff may serve a Civil Bill Process, requiring the Defendant to show Cause why Process of Arrest or Committal should not issue.

Civil Bill Process to be according to Form (A.) in Schedule.

IV. And be it enacted, That in all Cases in which any Judgment, Decree, or Order as aforesaid for any such Sum, not exceeding such respective Sums specified in the several Cases as aforesaid, shall have been or shall be had, under and by virtue of which the Defendant or Party against whom such Judgment, Decree, or Order shall have been or shall be had might if this Act had not been passed be charged in Execution or arrested, or whenever any Defendant or Party shall have been or shall be discharged from Custody as to any such Execution, Decree, or Order under and by virtue of this Act, and the Plaintiff or Person having obtained such Execution, Decree, or Order shall not have recovered his Demand out of the Goods and Chattels of such Defendant or Party, it shall be lawful for the Plaintiff or Person having obtained such Judgment, Decree, or Order to cause a Civil Bill Process to be issued against the Defendant in such Judgment or the Party against whom such Decree or Order shall have been obtained, thereby requiring him personally to appear before the Assistant Barrister for the County or Riding at the General or Quarter Sessions for the Division or Place in which such Defendant or Party shall reside, and to show Cause why Execution or Process of Arrest or a Committal should not issue against his Person in respect of such Judgment, Decree, or Order, as the Case may be; and such Civil Bill Process shall be according to the Form (A.) in the Schedule to this Act annexed, or as near thereto as the Nature of the Case will admit; and the respective Assistant Barristers within their respective Jurisdictions shall have Power to hear and determine any such Civil Bill; and the Service and the several Proceedings of, in, or relating to such Civil Bill, and the Costs of or relating to the same, shall be subject to like Provisions and Regulations, so far as the same are applicable, as any Civil Bill in Cases of Debt or Assumpsit, save as herein otherwise provided.

If Assistant Barrister shall find that Defendant has Property fit to be administered under the Insolvent Act, he may direct Process of Arrest to issue, or if Debt contracted fraudulently may commit him.

V. And be it enacted, That at the hearing of such Civil Bill it shall be lawful for the Assistant Barrister to cause the Plaintiff and the Defendant, or either of them, in such Civil Bill, (if they or either of them shall appear on such hearing,) to be examined on Oath, and upon such Examination, and upon such other Evidence as shall be offered, to investigate the Amount of the Debts or Demands due or owing by or claimable against the Defendant, and the Nature and Amount and Circumstances of any Property of whatsoever kind he or any one in trust for him is, was, or may be possessed of or entitled to, and the Manner and Circumstances under which the Debt due to the Plaintiff or other Liability was incurred, and the Means and Expectation of Payment thereof; and if it shall appear that the Defendant or any one in trust for him is possessed of or entitled to Property of any kind which, regard being had to the Nature, Amount, and Circumstances of such Property, and to the several Debts and Demands due by and claimable against the Defendant, and to the Security of his several Creditors, ought, in the Opinion of the Assistant Barrister, to be administered under the Provisions of the Acts relating to Insolvent Debtors in Ireland, or that the Defendant is of sufficient Ability to discharge the Plaintiff's Debt or Demand, then and in such Case it shall be lawful for the Assistant Barrister to issue a Decree, in like Manner as in other Cases of Civil Bill, to take in Execution the Body of the Defendant to satisfy the Plaintiff's Demand and Costs, or to issue such Decree with Stay of Execution for a Period thereby limited, which Decree may be according to the Form (B.) in the Schedule to this Act annexed, or as the Circumstances of the Case may require; and under any such Decree the said Defendant may be arrested and detained in Custody accordingly, as in other Cases of Execution against the Body under a Civil Bill Decree before the passing of this Act, anything herein to the contrary notwithstanding; but if at such hearing it shall appear to such Assistant Barrister that there is not Property of the Defendant which ought ought in the Opinion of such Barrister to be administered under the said Acts relating to Insolvent Debtors, or that the Defendant is not of sufficient Ability to discharge the Plaintiff's Debt or Demand, but that such Defendant, in incurring the Debt due to the Plaintiff or other Liability, has obtained Credit from the Plaintiff under false Pretences, or by means of Fraud or Breach of Trust, or has wilfully contracted such Debt or Liability without having had at the same Time a reasonable Expectation of being able to pay or discharge the same, or shall have made or caused to be made any Gift, Delivery, or Transfer of any Property, or shall have charged, removed, or concealed the same, with Intent to defraud his Creditors or any of them, it shall be lawful for the Assistant Barrister, if he shall think fit, by a Decree or Order according to the Form (B.) in the Schedule to this Act annexed, or as the Circumstances of the Case may require, to order that any such Defendant may be committed to the Common Gaol or House of Correction of the County, District, or Place in which the Defendant is resident, for any Period not exceeding Three Calendar Months, unless the Demand of the Plaintiff be sooner paid, without Prejudice to any Remedies for the Recovery of the Plaintiff's Demand out of the Property or Effects of the Defendant: Provided always, that it shall not be necessary for the Plaintiff to appear in Person at the hearing of such Civil Bill: Provided also, that there shall be no Appeal from any such Decision of the Assistant Barrister; and in case of a Dismiss the Costs thereof shall be paid by the Plaintiff or set off against his Demand, as the Assistant Barrister shall direct: Provided also, that if the Defendant in such Civil Bill shall not personally appear as thereby required at such hearing it shall be lawful for such Assistant Barrister to proceed to the hearing of such Case in his Absence, and to make such Decree or Order as might be made on his Appearance, or as the Assistant Barrister shall think fit.

In default of Defendant's Appearance, Decree may be made.

Power to examine or commit at the original Hearing of a Civil Bill in certain Cases.

VI. And be it enacted, That in any Action brought in any Civil Bill Court in any Case where the Power of Arrest would otherwise be taken away under this Act, the Assistant Barrister at the original Hearing of the Cause, if he shall see Reason to make a Decree against the Defendant, shall have the same Power and Authority of examining the Defendant and the Plaintiff, or either of them, or other Persons, touching the several Matters in the last preceding Provision mentioned, and of granting a Decree against the Person of the Defendant, or of committing him to Prison, as he might have and exercise under the said last preceding Provision in case the Plaintiff had (after a Decree obtained) proceeded specially by a Civil Bill for such Purpose, as in the said last preceding Provision mentioned, anything herein-before contained to the contrary thereof notwithstanding: Provided always, that in any such Case the Plaintiff shall cause a written or printed Notice to be annexed to or endorsed on the Civil Bill Process, stating that such Plaintiff will proceed in such Civil Bill under the Powers and Provisions of this Act, inserting the Title thereof.

Upon Affidavit that a Defendant is about to quit Ireland, he may by a Special Order be taken in Execution.

VII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That in any Action in any Court for any Sum not exceeding such respective Sums specified in such several Cases as aforesaid, or in any Case in which a Judgment, Decree, or Order for any such Sum or Sums shall have been or shall be had or obtained, where the Defendant or Party against whom such Action shall be brought, or such Judgment, Decree, or Order shall have been or shall be had or obtained, might, if this Act had not been passed, be or have been charged in Execution or arrested, if the Plaintiff or Person bringing such Action, or obtaining such Judgment, Decree, or Order, shall, by the Affidavit of himself or of some other Person, or other Proof, show, to the Satisfaction of the Court in which such Action shall be brought, or such Judgment, Decree, or Order shall have been had or obtained, that there is probable Cause for believing that the Defendant or any one of the Defendants, or the Person or Persons against whom any such Action shall be brought, or such Judgment, Decree, or Order shall have been obtained, is or are about to quit Ireland unless he or they be forthwith arrested or charged in Execution, it shall and may be lawful for any such Court, upon the hearing of the Case, in the first instance to grant an Execution, Order, or Civil Bill Decree, as the Case may be, against the Person of the Defendant, or (in the Case of an Execution, Decree, or Order having been theretofore had or obtained) by a Special Order to direct that such Defendant or Person so about to quit Ireland shall be arrested or charged in Execution under such Judgment, Decree, or Order as aforesaid; and thereupon it shall be lawful for the Plaintiff or Party obtaining such Judgment, Decree, or Order to arrest or charge in Execution the said Defendant or Person against whom such Judgment, Decree, or Order shall have been obtained, in like Manner as such Defendant or Person might have been arrested or charged in Execution if this Act had not been passed: Provided always, that in the Case of any such Special Order for Arrest in Execution as last aforesaid obtained in respect of a Judgment, Decree, or Order theretofore obtained, it shall be lawful for the Person so arrested or charged in Execution to apply, at any Time after such Arrest, to the Court in which such Judgment, Decree, or Order shall have been obtained, for a Rule or Order on the Plaintiff or Person obtaining such Judgment, Decree, or Order, to show Cause why the Party arrested under such Special Order as aforesaid should not be discharged out of Custody, and it shall be lawful for such Court thereupon, and upon Consideration of any further Affidavits to be produced by or on behalf of either of the Parties, or upon Examination of the Parties or either of them, or of Witnesses, to make such other Order thereon as to such Court shall seem fit, or to direct the Costs of the Application to be paid by either Party, not exceeding in any Civil Bill Court the Costs of a Decree; but if thereupon the Party arrested shall be discharged, such Discharge shall be without Prejudice to any Remedies for the Recovery of the Plaintiff's or Party's Demand out of the Property or Effects of the Defendant or Person so discharged, and the Execution, Writ, Decree, or Process against the Person may be changed to an Execution, Writ, Decree, or Process against such Property or Effects.

And be it enacted, That the Clerk to the Justices who shall make any Order of Removal shall keep the Depositions upon which such Order was made, and shall within Seven Days furnish a Copy of such Depositions to the Overseers or Guardians as aforesaid of the Parish to which the Removal is by such Order directed to be made, if such Overseers or such Guardians shall apply for such Copy, and pay for the same at the Rate of Two-pence for every Folio of Seventy-two Words; provided, that no Omission or Delay in furnishing such Copy of the Depositions shall be deemed or construed to be any Ground of Appeal against the Order of Removal; provided also, that on the Trial of any Appeal against an Order of Removal no such Order shall be quashed or set aside, either wholly or in part, on the Ground that such Depositions do not furnish sufficient Evidence to support, or that any Matter therein contained or omitted raises, an Objection to the Order or Grounds of Removal.

As to the Sufficiency of Statement of Grounds of Removal or Appeal.

IV. 'And whereas a Statement of the Grounds of Removal or of Appeal is required to be communicated 'for the Purpose of enabling the Party receiving it to inquire into the Subject of such Statement, and, 'if need be, to prepare for Trial:' Be it therefore enacted, That upon the hearing of any Appeal against an Order of Removal no Objection whatever on account of any Defect in the Form of setting forth any Ground of Removal or of Appeal in any such Statement shall be allowed, and no Objection to the Reception of legal Evidence offered in support of a Ground of Removal or Appeal alleged to be set forth in any such Statement shall prevail, unless the Court shall be of opinion that such alleged Ground is so imperfectly or incorrectly set forth as to be insufficient to enable the Party receiving the same to inquire into the Subject of such Statement, and to prepare for Trial: Provided always, that in all Cases where the Court shall be of opinion that any such Objection to such Statement or to the Reception of Evidence ought to prevail, it shall be lawful for such Court, if it shall so think fit, to cause any such Statement of Grounds of Removal or Appeal to be forthwith amended by some Officer of the Court or otherwise, on such

'of Communication in the Counties of Inverness and Ross: And whereas the Commissioners appointed

'and applied to the Purposes of the said Acts, and a great Extent of Military Roads and Bridges, and
'other Roads and Bridges, and Ferry Piers, and Shipping Quays, and other Works, have been con'structed, repaired, and maintained, with the Consent and Approbation of the said Commissioners: And
'whereas, in virtue of the said recited Act of the Fifty-ninth Year of the Reign of His Majesty King
'George the Third, various Proprietors of Lands and Heritages in the County of Inverness were assessed 'and have continued from Year to Year to pay Assessments according to the Amount of the Rents and
'Profits of their respective Estates as assessed to the Property Tax in the Year One thousand eight 'hundred and fourteen, in which Rents and Profits was included the annual Value of the Kelp grown
'and manufactured upon the Shores of their Estates, which at that Time bore a very high Price in the 'Market, notwithstanding that since the passing of certain Acts reducing and modifying the Duty (which 'is now merely nominal) on the Importation of Barilla, Kelp has so much fallen in Value as to have 'ceased to be manufactured upon some Estates, and on all Estates has suffered a great Reduction in 'Price; and it is just and expedient that such Proprietors should pay Assessments only upon the actual 'Value of the Produce of their Estates, and that another and more equitable Mode of Assessment should
'be adopted:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the Fifteenth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and forty-nine the Assessments to be levied in the County of Inverness, in virtue of the said recited Acts or any of them, for the Maintenance and Repair of the Roads and Bridges, and of the Ferries, Piers, and Shipping Quays, in the Manner authorized by the said recited Acts, shall be made upon every Proprietor, Life-renter, or proper Wadsetter of Lands and Heritages enjoying the Dominium utile thereof, according to the respective annual Values of such Lands and Heritages as assessed to the Property Tax for the Year ending the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and forty-seven, under Schedule (A.) of an Act passed in the Fifth and Sixth Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act for granting to Her Majesty Duties on Profits arising from Property, Professions, Trades, and Offices, until the Sixth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and forty-five, as continued by another Act passed in the Eighth and Ninth Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act to continue for Three Years the Duties and Profits arising from Property, Professions, Trades, and Offices, and thereafter yearly, according to the Amount of the annual Values respectively of such Lands and Heritages, as assessed to the Property Tax in each succeeding Year under the said recited Acts of Her present Majesty.

Assessment to be made on the annual Value of Lands and Heritages as assessed to the Property Tax under Acts 5 & 6 Vict. c. 35. and 8 & 9 Vict. c. 4.

How Assessment shall be made in case of Expiration, &c. of the Two last-recited Acts.

II. Provided always, and be it enacted, That in the event of the Expiration or Repeal of the said recited Acts of Her present Majesty, such Assessment shall thereafter be made from Year to Year, according to the annual Values of the Lands and Heritages of such Proprietors, Life-renters, or Wadsetters as assessed to the Property Tax in the Year immediately preceding the Expiration or Repeal of the said recited Acts of Her present Majesty.

At the End of Five Years,

III. Provided also, and be it enacted, That if at the End of Five Years after the Expiration or Repeal of the said recited Acts of Her present Majesty, or at any Time thereafter, it shall appear to the Commissioners

Commissioners of Supply of the said County that the Operation of the Assessment under this Act has become unjust or unequal, the Commissioners of Supply of the said County shall have Power to make up, and shall make up, from any existing Rental of the County used for the Purpose of Assessment or otherwise, in such Way and Manner as to them shall seem proper, a new Rental according to the respective annual Values for the Time of such Lands and Heritages; which new Rental, when completed, shall for the Year of its Completion, and thereafter, be the Rule of Assessment under this Act; and such and the same Power shall in the same Circumstances be competent to and be exercised by the said Commissioners of Supply with such and the same Effect, at the Expiration of Ten Years from the Adoption of the said new Rental, and at the Expiration of each Period of Ten Years thereafter.

Commissioners of Supply may alter Mode of Assessment as may be then suitable; and again at the Expiration of every Ten Years.

IV. Provided also, and be it enacted, That if under the Provisions of any Act to be passed in the present or any future Session of Parliament a Valuation shall be made of the Lands and Heritages of the said County, to ascertain and fix the real annual Value thereof in order to Assessment, the Assessments to be imposed and levied in the said County for the Maintenance and Repair of the said Roads and Bridges, and Ferries, Piers, and Shipping Quays within the same, shall, after such Valuation shall be completed, be no longer made according to the annual Values of such Lands and Heritages as assessed to the Property Tax, but shall be imposed and levied upon the real annual Value thereof, as the same shall be ascertained and fixed as aforesaid; without Prejudice, nevertheless, to the Recovery of any Assessment imposed previous to the passing of such Act, or any Arrears of such Assessment.

If real annual Value of the County be ascertained, the Assessment to be thereafter imposed on such Value.

V. And be it enacted, That the said first Five recited Acts shall in all respects, except in so far as the same or any of them are or is altered by this Act, remain in full Force and Operation, and shall, with all the Clauses and Provisions thereof, be applicable and applied (in as far as the same are or is applicable) to this Act, and shall be as valid and efficient for ascertaining the Amount of the Assessments, and for the Recovery and Application thereof, and in all other respects for regulating the Proceedings under this Act, as if the same had been herein repeated and re-enacted.

The Five first-recited Acts to remain in force and be applicable to the Purposes of this Act.

VI. And be it enacted, That this Act may be amended or repealed by any Act to be passed in the present Session of Parliament.

Act may be amended, &c.

An Act to facilitate the Performance of the Duties of Justices of the Peace out of Sessions within England and Wales with respect to Persons charged with indictable Offences.

[14th August 1848.]

'WHEREAS it would conduce much to the Improvement of the Administration of Criminal Justice within England and Wales if the several Statutes and Parts of Statutes relating to the Duties of 'Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace therein with respect to Persons charged with indictable Offences 'were consolidated, with such Additions and Alterations as may be deemed necessary, and that such 'Duties should be clearly defined by positive Enactment:' Be it therefore declared and enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That

For what Offences a Justice of the Peace may grant a Warrant or Summons to cause a Person charged therewith to be brought before him.

and in case such accused Party shall be taken before the Justice or Justices last aforesaid by virtue of the said last-mentioned Warrant, the Constable or other Person or Persons to whom the said Warrant shall have been directed, and who shall have conveyed such accused Party before such last-mentioned Justice or Justices, shall be entitled to be paid his Costs and Expenses of conveying the said accused Party before the said Justice or Justices; and upon the said Constable or other Person producing the said accused Party before such Justice or Justices, and delivering him into the Custody of such Person as the said Justice or Justices shall direct or name in that Behalf, and upon the said Constable delivering to the said Justice or Justices the Warrant, Information (if any), Depositions, and Recognizances aforesaid, and proving by Oath the Handwriting of the Justice or Justices who shall have subscribed the same, such Justice or Justices to whom the said accused Party is so produced shall thereupon forthwith ascertain the Sum which ought to be paid to such Constable or other Person for conveying such accused Party and taking him before such Justice or Justices, as also his reasonable Costs and Expenses of returning, and thereupon such Justice or Justices shall make an Order (R. 2.) upon the Treasurer of the County, Riding, Division, or Liberty, City, Borough, or Place, or if such City, Borough, or Place shall be contributory to the County Rate of any County, Riding, Division, or Liberty, then upon the Treasurer of such County, Riding, Division, or Liberty respectively to which it is contributory, for Payment to such Constable or other Person of the Sum so ascertained to be payable to him in that Behalf, and the said Treasurer, upon such Order being produced to him, shall pay the Amount to the said Constable or other Person producing the same, or to any Person who shall present the same to him for Payment: Provided always, that if such last-mentioned Justice or Justices shall not think the Evidence against such accused Party sufficient to put him upon his Trial, and shall discharge him without holding him to Bail, every such Recognizance so taken by the said first-mentioned Justice or Justices as aforesaid shall be null and void.

If a Person be apprehended in one County on Charge of an Offence committed in another, he may be examined in the former;

and if Evidence be deemed sufficient, may be committed to Prison;

if insufficient, to be brought before some Justice in the latter County.

And be it enacted, That where any Person shall appear or be brought before a Justice of the Peace, charged with any Felony, or with any Assault with Intent to commit any Felony, or with any Attempt to commit any Felony, or with obtaining or attempting to obtain Property by false Pretences, or with a Misdemeanor in receiving Property stolen or obtained by false Pretences, or with Perjury or Subornation of Perjury, or with concealing the Birth of a Child by secret burying or otherwise, or with wilful or indecent Exposure of the Person, or with Riot, or with Assault in pursuance of a Conspiracy to raise Wages, or Assault upon a Peace Officer in the Execution of his Duty, or upon any Person acting in his Aid, or with Neglect or Breach of Duty as a Peace Officer, or with any Misdemeanor for the Power to Justice to admit to Bail Persons charged with Felony and certain Misdemeanors.

Prosecution of which the Costs may be allowed out of the County Rate, such Justice of the Peace may, in his Discretion, admit such Person to Bail, upon his procuring and producing such Surety or Sureties as in the Opinion of such Justice will be sufficient to ensure the Appearance of such accused Person at the Time and Place when and where he is to be tried for such Offence; and thereupon such Justice shall take the Recognizance (S. 1. 2.) of the said accused Person and his Surety or Sureties, conditioned for the Appearance of such accused Person at the Time and Place of Trial, and that he will then surrender and take his Trial, and not depart the Court without Leave; and in all Cases where a Person charged with any indictable Offence shall be committed to Prison to take his Trial for the same, it shall be lawful, at any Time afterwards, and before the First Day of the Sitting or Session at which he is to be tried, or before the Day to which such Sitting or Session may be adjourned, for the Justice or Justices of the Peace who shall have signed the Warrant for his Commitment, in his or their Discretion, to admit such accused Person to Bail in manner aforesaid; or if such committing Justice or Justices shall be of opinion that for any of the Offences herein-before mentioned the said accused Person ought to be admitted to Bail, he or they shall in such Cases, and in all other Cases of Misdeameanors, certify (S. 3.) on the Back of the Warrant of Commitment his or their Consent to such accused Party being bailed, stating also the Amount of Bail which ought to be required, it shall be lawful for any Justice of the Peace, attending or being at the Gaol or Prison where such accused Party shall be in Custody, on Production of such Certificate, to admit such accused Person to Bail in manner aforesaid; or if it shall be inconvenient for the Surety or Sureties in such a Case to attend at such Gaol or Prison to join with such accused Person in the Recognizance of Bail, then such committing Justice or Justices may make a Duplicate of such Certificate (S. 4.) as aforesaid, and upon the same being produced to any Justice of the Peace for the same County, Riding, Division, Liberty, City, Borough, or Place, it shall be lawful for such last-mentioned Justice to take the Recognizance of the Surety or Sureties in conformity with such Certificate, and upon such Recognizance being transmitted to the Keeper of such Gaol or Prison, and produced, together with the Certificate on the Warrant of Commitment as aforesaid to any Justice of the Peace attending or being at such Gaol or Prison, it shall be lawful for such last-mentioned Justice thereupon to take the Recognizance of such accused Party, and to order him to be discharged out of Custody as to that Commitment, as herein-after mentioned; and where any Person shall be charged before any Justice of the Peace with any indictable Misdemeanor other than those herein-before mentioned, such Justice, after taking the Examinations in Writing as aforesaid, instead of committing him to Prison for such Offence, shall admit him to Bail in manner aforesaid, or if he have been committed to Prison, and shall apply to any One of the Visiting Justices of such Prison, or to any other Justice of the Peace for the same County, Riding, Division, Liberty, City, Borough, or Place, before the First Day of the Sitting or Session at which he is to be tried, or before the Day to which such Sitting or Session may be adjourned, to be admitted to Bail, such Justice shall accordingly admit him to Bail in manner aforesaid; and in all Cases where such accused Person in Custody shall be admitted to Bail by a Justice of the Peace other than the committing Justice or Justices as aforesaid, such Justice of the Peace so admitting him to Bail shall forthwith transmit the Recognizance or Recognizances of Bail to the committing Justice or Justices, or One of them, to be by him or them transmitted, with the Examinations, to the proper Officer: Provided nevertheless, that no Justice or Justices of the Peace shall admit any Person to Bail for Treason, nor shall such Person be admitted to Bail, except by Order of One of Her Majesty's Secretaries of State, or by Her Majesty's Court of Queen's Bench at Westminster, or a Judge thereof in vacation: Provided also, that when, in Cases of Misdemeanor, the Defendant shall be entitled to a Traverse at the next Assizes or Quarter Sessions, and shall not be bound to take his Trial until the Second Assizes or Sessions, in every such Case the Recognizance (S. 1.) of Bail shall be conditioned that he shall appear and plead at the next Assizes or Sessions, and then traverse the Indictment, and that he shall surrender and take his Trial at such Second Assizes or Sessions, unless such accused Party shall, before he enter into such Recognizance, choose and consent to take his Trial at such First Assizes or Sessions, in which Case the Recognizance may be in the ordinary Form herein-before mentioned.

When Justice admits a Person to Bail after Commitment a Writ of Deliverance shall be sent to him, &c.

Where the issuing a Warrant would be ruinous to Defendant, or where there are no Goods, Justice may commit him to Prison.

whenever it shall appear to any Justice of the Peace to whom Application shall be made for any such Warrant of Distress as aforesaid that the issuing thereof would be ruinous to the Defendant and his Family, or wherever it shall appear to such Justice, by the Confession of the Defendant or otherwise, that he hath no Goods or Chattels whereon to levy such Distress, then and in every such Case it shall be lawful for such Justice, if he shall deem it fit, instead of issuing such Warrant of Distress, to commit such Defendant to the House of Correction, or if there be no House of Correction within his Jurisdiction then to the Common Gaol, there to be imprisoned, with or without hard Labour, for such Time and in such Manner as by Law such Defendant might be so committed in case such Warrant of Distress had issued, and no Goods or Chattels could be found whereon to levy such Penalty or Sum and Costs aforesaid.

Justice, after issuing Warrant, may suffer Defendant to go at large, or order him into Custody, until Return be made, unless he gives Security by Recognizance; but if he fail to re-appear, the Justice may transmit the Recognizance

XX. And be it enacted, That in all Cases where a Justice of the Peace shall issue any such Warrant of Distress it shall be lawful for him to suffer the Defendant to go at large, or verbally or by a written Warrant in that Behalf, to order the Defendant to be kept and detained in safe Custody until Return shall be made to such Warrant of Distress, unless such Defendant shall give sufficient Security, by Recognizance or otherwise, to the Satisfaction of such Justice, for his Appearance before him at the Time and Place appointed for the Return of such Warrant of Distress, or before such other Justice or Justices for the same County, Riding, Division, Liberty, City, Borough, or Place as may then be there: Provided always, that in all Cases where a Defendant shall give Security by Recognizance as aforesaid, and shall not afterwards appear at the Time and Place in such Recognizance mentioned, then the said Justice who shall have taken the said Recognizance, or any Justice or Justices who may then be there present, upon certifying (F.) on the Back of the Recognizance the Nonappearance of the Defendant, may transmit such Recognizance to the Clerk of the Peace of the County, Riding, Division, Liberty, City, Borough, or Place within which the Offence shall be laid to have been committed, to be proceeded upon in like Manner as other Recognizances, and such Certificate shall be deemed sufficient primâ facie Evidence of such Nonappearance of the said Defendant. to the Clerk of the Peace.

Manner

XXI. And be it enacted, That if at the Time and Place appointed for the Return of any such Warrant of Distress the Constable who shall have had the Execution of the same shall return (N. 4.) that he could find no Goods or Chattels or no sufficient Goods or Chattels whereon he could levy the Sum or Sums therein mentioned, together with the Costs of or occasioned by the levying of the same, it shall be lawful for the Justice of the Peace before whom the same shall be returned to issue his Warrant of Commitment (N. 5.) under his Hand and Seal, directed to the same or any other Constable, reciting the Conviction or Order shortly, the issuing of the Warrant of Distress, and the Return thereto, and requiring such Constable to convey such Defendant to the House of Correction, or if there be no House of Correction then to the Common Gaol of the County, Riding, Division, Liberty, City, Borough, or Place for which such Justice shall then be acting, and there to deliver him to the Keeper thereof, and requiring such Keeper to receive the Defendant into such House of Correction or Gaol, and there to imprison him, or to imprison him and keep him to hard Labour, in such Manner and for such Time as shall have been directed and appointed by the Statute on which the Conviction or Order mentioned in such Warrant of Distress was founded, unless the Sum or Sums adjudged to be paid, and all Costs and Charges of the Distress, and also the Costs and Charges of the Commitment and conveying of the Defendant to Prison, if such Justice shall think fit so to order, (the Amount thereof being ascertained and stated in such Commitment,) shall be sooner paid. In all Cases of Penalties, Convictions, or Orders, where the Statute provides no Remedy in default of Distress, Justice may commit Defendant to Prison.

XXIII. And be it enacted, That in all Cases where the Statute by virtue of which a Conviction for a Penalty or Compensation, or an Order for the Payment of Money, is made, makes no Provision for such Penalty or Compensation or Sum being levied by Distress, but directs that if the same be not paid forthwith or within a certain Time therein mentioned or to be mentioned in such Conviction or Order, the Defendant shall be imprisoned, or imprisoned and kept to hard Labour, for a certain Time, unless such Penalty, Compensation, or Sum shall be sooner paid, in every such Case such Penalty, Compensation, or Sum shall not be levied by Distress; but if the Defendant do not pay the same, together with Costs, if awarded, forthwith, or at the Time specified in such Conviction or Order for the Payment of the same, it shall be lawful for the Justice or Justices making such Conviction or Order, or for any other Justice of the Peace for the same County, Riding, Division, Liberty, City, Borough, or Place, to issue his or their Warrant of Commitment (O. 1. 2.) under his or their Hand and Seal, or Hands and Seals, requiring the Constable or Constables to whom the same shall be directed to take and convey such Defendant to the House of Correction or Common Gaol for the County, Riding, Division, Liberty, City, Borough, or Place aforesaid, as the Case may be, and there to deliver him to the Keeper thereof, and requiring such Keeper to receive such Defendant into such House of Correction or Gaol, and there to imprison him, or to imprison him and keep him to hard Labour, as the Case may be, for such Time as the Statute on which such Conviction or Order is founded as aforesaid shall direct, unless the Sum or Sums adjudged to be paid, and also the Costs and Charges of taking and conveying the Defendant to Prison, if such Justice or Justices shall think fit so to order, shall be sooner paid. Power to Justices to order Commitment in the first instance for Non-payment of a Penalty or of a Sum ordered to be paid.

XXIV. And be it enacted, That where a Conviction does not order the Payment of any Penalty, but that the Defendant be imprisoned, or imprisoned and kept to hard Labour, for his Offence, or where an Order is not for the Payment of Money, but for the doing of some other Act, and directs that in case of the Defendant's Neglect or Refusal to do such Act he shall be imprisoned or imprisoned and kept to hard Labour, and the Defendant neglects or refuses to do such Act, in every such Case it shall be lawful for such Justice or Justices making such Conviction or Order or for some other Justice of the Peace for the same County, Riding, Division, Liberty, City, Borough, or Place to issue his or their Warrant of Commitment (P. 1. 2.) under his or their Hand and Seal or Hands and Seals, and requiring the Constable or Constables to whom the same shall be directed to take and convey such Defendant to the House of Correction or Common Gaol for the same County, Riding, Division, Liberty, City, Borough, or Place, as the Case may be, and there to deliver him to the Keeper thereof, and requiring such Keeper to receive such Defendant into such House of Correction or Gaol, and there to imprison him or to imprison him and keep him to hard Labour, as the Case may be, for such Time as the Statute on which such Conviction or Order is founded as aforesaid shall direct; and in all such Cases, where by such Conviction or Order any Sum for Power to Justices to order Commitment where the Conviction is not for a Penalty, nor the Order for Payment of Money, and the Punishment is by Imprisonment, &c.

Costs may be levied by Dis-for Costs shall be adjudged to be paid by the Defendant to the Prosecutor or Complainant, such Sum may, if the Justice or Justices shall think fit, be levied by Warrant of Distress (P. 3. 4.) in manner aforesaid, and in default of Distress the Defendant may, if such Justice or Justices shall think fit, be committed (P. 5.) to the same House of Correction or Common Gaol in manner aforesaid, there to be imprisoned for any Time not exceeding One Calendar Month, to commence at the Termination of the Imprisonment he shall then be undergoing, unless such Sum for Costs, and all Costs and Charges of the said Distress, and also the Costs and Charges of the Commitment and conveying of the Defendant to Prison, if such Justice or Justices shall think fit so to order, shall be sooner paid.

Imprisonment for a subsequent Offence to commence at Expiration of that for previous Offence.

XXV. And be it enacted, That where a Justice or Justices of the Peace shall upon any such Information or Complaint as aforesaid adjudge the Defendant to be imprisoned, and such Defendant shall then be in Prison undergoing Imprisonment upon a Conviction for any other Offence, the Warrant of Commitment for such subsequent Offence shall in every such Case be forthwith delivered to the Gaoler to whom the same shall be directed; and it shall be lawful for the Justice or Justices issuing the same, if he or they shall think fit, to award and order therein and thereby that the Imprisonment for such subsequent Offence shall commence at the Expiration of the Imprisonment to which such Defendant shall have been previously adjudged or sentenced.

If Information be dismissed Costs may be recovered by Distress upon Prosecutor, &c. who in default may be committed.

XXVI. And be it enacted, That where any Information or Complaint shall be dismissed with Costs as aforesaid, the Sum which shall be awarded for Costs in the Order for Dismissal may be levied by Distress (Q. 1.) on the Goods and Chattels of the Prosecutor or Complainant in manner aforesaid; and in default of Distress or Payment such Prosecutor or Complainant may be committed (Q. 2.) to the House of Correction or Common Gaol in manner aforesaid, for any Time not exceeding One Calendar Month, unless such Sum and all Costs and Charges of the Distress, and of the Commitment and conveying of such Prosecutor or Complainant to Prison, (the Amount thereof being ascertained and stated in such Commitment,) shall be sooner paid.

After Appeal against Conviction or Order Justice may issue Warrants of Distress for Execution of the same.

CAP. XLIV.

An Act to protect Justices of the Peace from vexatious Actions for Acts done by them in execution of their Office. [14th August 1848.]

For an Act by a Justice within his Jurisdiction the Action shall be on the Case, and it shall be alleged to have been done maliciously, and without probable Cause.

WHEREAS it is expedient to protect Justices of the Peace in the Execution of their Duty: Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That every Action hereafter to be brought against any Justice of the Peace for any Act done by him in the Execution of his Duty as such Justice, with respect to any Matter within his Jurisdiction as such Justice, shall be an Action on the Case as for a Tort; and in the Declaration it shall be expressly alleged that such Act was done maliciously, and without reasonable and probable Cause; and if at the Trial of any such Action, upon the General Issue being pleaded, the Plaintiff shall fail to prove such Allegation, he shall be nonsuit, or a Verdict shall be given for the Defendant.

For an Act without or exceeding his Jurisdiction, Action may lie without such Allegation; but not under a Conviction or Order, until they have been quashed; nor under a Warrant to compel Appearance, if a Summons were previously served, and not obeyed.

II. And be it enacted, That for any Act done by a Justice of the Peace in a Matter of which by Law he has not Jurisdiction, or in which he shall have exceeded his Jurisdiction, any Person injured thereby, or by any Act done under any Conviction or Order made or Warrant issued by such Justice in any such Matter, may maintain an Action against such Justice in the same Form and in the same Case as he might have done before the passing of this Act, without making any Allegation in his Declaration that the Act complained of was done maliciously, and without reasonable and probable Cause: Provided nevertheless, that no such Action shall be brought for anything done under such Conviction or Order until after such Conviction shall have been quashed, either upon Appeal or upon Application to Her Majesty's Court of Queen's Bench; nor shall any such Action be brought for anything done under any such Warrant which shall have been issued by such Justice to procure the Appearance of such Party, and which shall have been followed by a Conviction or Order in the same Matter, until after such Conviction or Order shall have been so quashed as aforesaid; or if such last-mentioned Warrant shall not have been followed by any such Conviction or Order, or if it be a Warrant upon an Information for an alleged indictable Offence, nevertheless if a Summons were issued previously to such Warrant, and such Summons were served upon such Person, either personally or by leaving the same for him with some Person at his last or most usual Place of Abode, and he did not appear according to the Exigency of such Summons, in such Case no such Action shall be maintained against such Justice for anything done under such Warrant.

Action to be brought against the Justice making the Conviction.

III. And be it enacted, That where a Conviction or Order shall be made by One or more Justice or Justices of the Peace, and a Warrant of Distress or of Commitment shall be granted thereon by some other Justice of the Peace bonâ fide and without Collusion, no Action shall be brought against the Justice who so granted such Warrant by reason of any Defect in such Conviction or Order, or for any Want of Jurisdiction in the Justice or Justices who made the same, but the Action (if any) shall be brought against the Justice or Justices who made such Conviction or Order.

No Action for issuing a Distress Warrant irregularly.

IV. And be it enacted, That where any Poor Rate shall be made, allowed, and published, and a Warrant of Distress shall issue against any Person named and rated therein, no Action shall be brought against the Justice or Justices who shall have granted such Warrant by reason of any Irregularity or Defect in the said Rate, or by reason of such Person not being liable to be rated therein; and that in all Cases where a discretionary Power shall be given to a Justice of the Peace by any Act or Acts of Parliament, no Action shall be brought against such Justice for or by reason of the Manner in which he shall have exercised his Discretion in the Execution of any such Power.

No Action in the Exercise of discretionary Power.

If a Justice refuse to do an Act, the Court of Queen's Bench may by Rule order him to do it, and no Action shall be brought against him for doing it.

V. 'And whereas it would conduce to the Advancement of Justice, and render more effective and 'certain the Performance of the Duties of Justices, and give them Protection in the Performance of the 'same, if some simple Means, not attended with much Expense, were devised by which the Legality of 'any Act to be done by such Justices might be considered and adjudged by a Court of competent Juris-'diction, and such Justice enabled and directed to perform it without Risk of any Action or other 'Proceeding being brought or had against him:' Be it therefore enacted, That in all Cases where a Justice or Justices of the Peace shall refuse to do any Act relating to the Duties of his or their Office as such Justice or Justices, it shall be lawful for the Party requiring such Act to be done to apply to Her Majesty's Court of Queen's Bench, upon an Affidavit of the Facts, for a Rule calling upon such Justice or Justices, and also the Party to be affected by such Act to show Cause why such Act should not be done; and if after due Service of such Rule good Cause shall not be shown against it, the said Court may make the same absolute, with or without or upon Payment of Costs, as to them shall seem meet; and the said Justice or Justices upon being served with such Rule absolute shall obey the same, and shall do the Act required; and no Action or Proceeding whatsoever shall be commenced or prosecuted against such Justice or Justices for having obeyed such Rule, and done such Act so thereby required as aforesaid.

After Conviction or Order confirmed on Appeal, no Action to be brought.

VI. And be it enacted, That in all Cases where a Warrant of Distress or Warrant of Commitment shall be granted by a Justice of the Peace upon any Conviction or Order which, either before or after the granting of such Warrant, shall have been or shall be confirmed upon Appeal, no Action shall be brought against such Justice who so granted such Warrant for anything which may have been done under the same by reason of any Defect in such Conviction or Order.

Actions may be set aside where Venue. Defendant may plead the General Issue, any special Matter, &c., in Evidence.

XI. And be it enacted, That in every such Case after Notice of Action shall be so given as aforesaid, and before such Action shall be commenced, such Justice to whom such Notice shall be given may tender to the Party complaining, or to his Attorney or Agent, such Sum of Money as he may think fit as Amends for the Injury complained of in such Notice; and after such Action shall have been commenced, and at any Time before Issue joined therein, such Defendant, if he have not made such Tender, or in addition to such Tender, shall be at liberty to pay into Court such Sum of Money as he may think fit, and which said Tender and Payment of Money into Court, or either of them, may afterwards be given in Evidence by the Defendant at the Trial under the General Issue aforesaid; and if the Jury at the Trial shall be of opinion that the Plaintiff is not entitled to Damages beyond the Sum so tendered or paid into Court, or beyond the Sums so tendered and paid into Court, then they shall give a Verdict for the Defendant, and the Plaintiff shall not be at liberty to elect to be nonsuit, and the Sum of Money, if any, so paid into Court, or so much thereof as shall be sufficient to pay or satisfy the Defendant's Costs in that Behalf, shall thereupon be paid out of Court to him, and the Residue, if any, shall be paid to the Plaintiff; or if, where Money is so paid into Court in any such Action, the Plaintiff shall elect to accept the same in satisfaction of his Damages in the said Action, he may obtain from any Judge of the Court in which such Action shall be brought an Order that such Money shall be paid out of Court to him, and that the Defendant shall pay him his Costs to be taxed, and thereupon the said Action shall be determined, and such Order shall be a Bar to any other Action for the same Cause. CAP. XLVI.

An Act for the Removal of Defects in the Administration of Criminal Justice.

[14th August 1848.]

'WHEREAS the technical Strictness of Criminal Proceedings might in some Instances be further relaxed, so as to ensure the Punishment of the Guilty, without depriving the Accused of any just Means of Defence: And whereas it is expedient to make further Provision for the more effectual Prosecution of Accessories before and after the Fact to Felony: And whereas it is also expedient that any Accessory before the Fact to Felony should be liable to be indicted, tried, convicted, and punished in all respects like the Principal, as is now the Case in Treason and in all Misdemeanors:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this Act, if any Person shall become an Accessory before the Fact to any Felony, whether the same be a Felony at Common Law or by virtue of any Statute or Statutes made or to be made, such Person may be indicted, tried, convicted, and punished in all respects as if he were a principal Felon.

Accessories before the Fact to any Felony may be punished in the same Degree as the Principal.

II. 'And whereas an Accessory after the Fact to Felony can at present be tried only along with the principal Felon, or after the principal Felon has been convicted, and not otherwise, which is sometimes productive of a Failure of Justice:' Be it therefore enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act if any Person shall become an Accessory after the Fact to any Felony, whether the same be a Felony at Common Law or by virtue of any Statute or Statutes made or to be made, he may be indicted and convicted either as an Accessory after the Fact to the principal Felony together with the principal Felon, or after the Conviction of the principal Felon, or may be indicted and convicted of a substantive Felony whether the principal Felon shall or shall not have been previously convicted or shall or shall not be amenable to Justice, and may thereupon be punished in like Manner as any Accessory after the Fact to the same Felony if convicted as an Accessory may be punished, and the Offence of such Person, howsoever indicted, may be inquired of, tried, determined, and punished by any Court which shall have Jurisdiction to try the principal Felon in the same Manner as if the Act by reason of which such Person shall have become an Accessory had been committed at the same Place as the principal Felony: Provided always, that no Person who shall be once duly tried for any such Offence, whether as an Accessory after the Fact or as for a substantive Felony, shall be liable to be again indicted or tried for the same Offence.

Trial and Conviction of Accessories after the Fact.

III. 'And whereas, according to the present Practice of Courts of Criminal Jurisdiction, it is not permitted in an Indictment for stealing Property to add a Count for receiving the same Property knowing it to have been stolen, or in an Indictment for receiving stolen Property knowing it to have been stolen to add a Count for stealing the same Property, and Justice is hereby often defeated:' Be it therefore enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, in every Indictment for feloniously stealing Property, it shall be lawful to add a Count for feloniously receiving the same Property, knowing it to have been stolen, and in any Indictment for feloniously receiving Property knowing it to have been stolen it shall be lawful to add a Count for feloniously stealing the same Property; and where any such Indictment shall have been preferred and found against any Person, the Prosecutor shall not be put to his Election, but it shall be lawful for the Jury who shall try the same to find a Verdict of Guilty, either of stealing the Property or of receiving it knowing it to have been stolen; and if such Indictment shall have been preferred and found against Two or more Persons it shall be lawful for the Jury who shall try the same to find all or any of the said Persons guilty either of stealing the Property or of receiving it knowing it to have been stolen, or to find one or more of the said Persons guilty of stealing the Property, and the other or others of them guilty of receiving it knowing it to have been stolen.

As to Additions of Counts in Indictments for stealing and receiving stolen Property.

IV. 'And whereas a Failure of Justice frequently takes place in Criminal Trials by reason of Variances between Writings produced in Evidence and the Recital or setting forth thereof in the Indictment or Information, and the same cannot now be amended at the Trial, except in Cases of Misdemeanor:' For Remedy thereof be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for any Court of Oyer and Terminer and General Gaol Delivery, if such Court shall see fit so to do, to cause the Indictment or Information for any Offence whatever, when any Variance or Variances shall appear between any Matter in Writing or in Print produced in Evidence and the Recital or setting forth thereof in the Indictment or Information whereon the Trial is pending, to be forthwith amended in such Particular or Particulars by some Officer of the Court, and after such Amendment the Trial shall proceed in the same Manner in all respects, both with regard to the Liability of Witnesses to be indicted for Perjury and otherwise, as if no such Variance or Variances had appeared.

Courts of Oyer and Terminer may cause Indictments to be amended in certain Cases.

Not to extend to Scotland.

V. Provided always, and be it enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend to Scotland.

Act may be amended, &c.

VI. And be it enacted, That this Act may be amended or repealed by any Act to be passed in this Session of Parliament.

CAP. LIV.

An Act for incorporating the Commissioners of the Caledonian Canal, and for vesting the Crinan Canal in the said Commissioners. [14th August 1848.]

'WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Forty-third Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act for granting to His Majesty the Sum of Twenty thousand Pounds towards defraying the Expense of making an inland Navigation from the Eastern to the Western Sea, by Inverness and Fort William, and for taking the necessary Steps towards executing the same, certain Persons therein named were appointed Commissioners for the Purposes of the said Act, and certain Powers were granted for carrying the same into execution: And whereas by an Act passed in the Forty-fourth Year of the Reign of His said Majesty, intituled An Act for making further Provision for making and maintaining an inland Navigation commonly called the Caledonian Canal, from the Eastern to the Western Sea, by Inverness and Fort William, in Scotland, further Powers were granted to the said Commissioners to enable them to make and maintain the said Navigation: And whereas the said Canal became navigable from Sea to Sea in the Month of October One thousand eight hundred and twenty-two, and has been in use from that Time: And whereas an Act was passed in the Sixth Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled An Act to explain and amend Two Acts, passed in the Forty-third and Forty-fourth Years of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, for making and maintaining an inland Navigation commonly called the Caledonian Canal, by establishing further Checks upon the Expenditure of Public Money for that Purpose, in certain Cases: And whereas by an Act passed in the Third and Fourth Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act to authorize the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury to grant a Lease of the Caledonian Canal for a Term of Years, and to regulate the future Management thereof, the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury were empowered to grant or lease the said Canal in manner there prescribed: And whereas by an Act passed in the Thirty-third Year of the Reign of His said Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act for making and maintaining a navigable Canal from Loch Gilp to Loch Crinan in the Shire of Argyll, the several Persons therein named were incorporated by the Name of "The Company of Proprietors of the Crinan Canal," for the Purpose of making and completing the said Canal and other necessary Works, which said last-recited Act was amended by another Act passed in the Thirty-ninth Year of the Reign of His said Majesty, intituled An Act for amending and rendering more effectual an Act passed in the Thirty-third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled 'An Act for making and maintaining a navigable Canal from Loch Gilp to Loch Crinan in the Shire of Argyll:' And whereas, though a large Sum of Money was subscribed before the passing of the said Act of the Thirty-third Year of the Reign of His said Majesty, it was found to be wholly insufficient to complete the Works of the Crinan Canal, and accordingly the Sum of Twenty-five thousand Pounds was advanced to the said Company by the Lord Chief Baron and other Barons of the Court of Exchequer in Scotland, by virtue of an Act passed in the said Thirty-ninth Year of the Reign of His said Majesty, intituled An Act for empowering the Company of Proprietors of Forth and Clyde Navigation to repay into the Court of Exchequer in Scotland the Sum advanced to them for the Purpose of completing the said Navigation; for repealing so much of an Act of the Twenty-fourth Year of His present Majesty as relates to the said Company; and for enabling the Barons of the said Court of Exchequer to advance Part of the Sum so to be received to the Company of Proprietors of the Crinan Canal, on certain Conditions: And whereas, pursuant to the Provisions of the said last-recited Act, all the Rates and Duties arising from the Crinan Canal, and all the Estate, Right, and Interest of the said Company in and to the same, and all Quays, Houses, Lands, and other Property purchased for the Purposes of the Crinan Canal, were assigned and made over by the said Company to the Lord Chief Baron and other Barons of the said Court of Exchequer until the said Sum of Twenty-five thousand Pounds, with Interest, should be paid and satisfied: And whereas the said Sum of Twenty-five thousand Pounds was applied towards completing the Crinan Canal, but being found insufficient for that Purpose, a further Sum of Twenty-five thousand Pounds was advanced to the said Company out of the Aids or Supplies granted for the Service of Great Britain for the Year One thousand eight hundred and five, by virtue of an Act passed in the Forty-fifth Year of the Reign of His said Majesty, intituled An Act for authorizing the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury in Great Britain to advance a certain Sum of Money, to be applied in completing the Crinan Canal, whereby it was provided that the Rates and Duties arising from the Crinan Canal, and all the Estate, Right, Title, and Interest of the said Company in and to the same, and the Quays, Houses, Lands, and other Property aforesaid, should remain vested in the Lord Chief Baron and other Barons of the Court of Exchequer in Scotland until not only the said first-mentioned Sum of Twenty-five thousand Pounds and Interest, but also the said further Sum of Twenty-five thousand Pounds, with Interest, should be satisfied and paid, in the same Manner and as fully and effectually as if another Assignment thereof had been made, which last-mentioned Sum of Twenty-five thousand Pounds was afterwards applied towards the Purposes mentioned in the said last-recited Act: And whereas by an Act passed in the Fifty-first Year of the Reign of His said Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act for granting to His Majesty certain Sums of Money out of the Consolidated Fund of Great Britain, and for applying certain Monies therein mentioned for the Service of the Year One thousand eight hundred and eleven, and for further appropriating the Supplies granted in this Session of Parliament, the Sum of Five thousand Pounds was granted to His Majesty for effecting the

So much of recited Acts of 43 & 44 G. 3. as relates to appointing Commissioners null and void.

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That so much of the said recited Acts of the Forty-third and Forty-fourth Years of the Reign of His said Majesty King George the Third as relates to the Appointment of Commissioners for the Purpose of carrying out the Provisions of the said Acts shall from and after the passing of this Act be null, void, and of no Effect, and the Commission itself shall cease to exist.

New Commissioners incorporated.

for the County of Argyll for the Time being), Neill Malcolm Esquire, Alexander Campbell Esquire, Edward Ellice junior, Esquire, James Murray Grant Esquire, and Evan Baillie Esquire, and such other Person or Persons as shall or may be appointed as herein-after mentioned, shall be and are hereby united into One Body Politic and Corporate by the Name and Style of "The Commissioners of the Caledonian Canal," and by that Name shall have perpetual Succession, and a Common Seal, with Power to change, break, and make new the same as they shall judge expedient, and by that Name shall and may sue and be sued, and may acquire, hold, and enjoy, and also acquire and dispose of Lands and Property, heritable and moveable, real and personal.

Power to Her Majesty to appoint other Commissioners.

III. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, to nominate and appoint by Sign Manual such other Persons as She or They may think proper, but not exceeding Eight in the whole, to be Commissioners in addition to the Commissioners before named; and in case of a Vacancy or Vacancies by Death or Resignation of any One or more of the Commissioners it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, to nominate and appoint by Sign Manual such Person or Persons as She or They may think proper to supply such Vacancy or Vacancies, One of the Lords of Her Majesty's Treasury for the Time being always being One of the Commissioners.

Caledonian Canal vested in the Commissioners.

And be it enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act the said Caledonian Canal, and all Warehouses, Buildings, Wharfs, Reservoirs, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments connected therewith, and all Chattels, Moveable Property, and Effects thereto belonging, shall be and hereby are subject to the existing Debts, Liabilities, and Engagements, Contracts, Obligations, and Incumbrances, affecting the same, vested in the Commissioners, and the Commissioners shall have and be seised and possessed of and are hereby invested with such and the like Estates, Authorities, Powers, Abilities, Interests, Privileges, and Advantages, and shall be and are hereby made subject and liable to such and the like Rules, Conditions, Directions, Regulations, Limitations, Restrictions, and Control, as are mentioned, directed, given, granted, prescribed, and established in and by the said recited Acts of the Forty-third and of the Forty-fourth Years of the Reign of His said Majesty King George the Third, of the Sixth Year of the Reign of His said Majesty King George the Fourth, and of the Third and Fourth Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, to every Intent and Purpose whatsoever, with respect to the Commissioners of the Caledonian Canal before the passing of this Act; and the Commissioners shall have and be entitled unto the full Benefit and Advantage of and be subject to all and every the Clauses, Provisoes, Powers, Authorities, Orders, Rules, Regulations, Limitations, Restrictions, Prohibitions, Directions, Exemptions, Matters, and Things contained in the said last-mentioned Acts (except such Parts thereof as are hereby varied and altered) in such and the same Manner and as fully and effectually, to all Intents and Purposes, as if all the said Clauses, Provisoes, Powers, Authorities, Orders, Rules, Regulations, Limitations, Restrictions, Prohibitions, Directions, Exemptions, Matters, and Things were herein repeated and re-enacted.

Crinan Canal vested in the Commissioners.

V. And be it enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act the Tolls and Rates arising from the Crinan Canal, and also the Canal itself, and all the Estate, Right, Title, and Interest in and to the same, and all Quays, Houses, Lands, Privileges, Easements, and Appurtenances belonging or appertaining thereunto, shall be and become the Property of and the same are hereby transferred to and vested in the Commissioners, freed and discharged from all Rights, Equity, or Claim of the said Company of Proprietors of the Crinan Canal, or of any Person or Persons claiming through them, except as herein-after provided; and the Commissioners shall thenceforth have and enjoy all the Rights, Powers, and Authorities for levying, taking, altering, and managing the Tolls, Rates, and Duties leviable on the Crinan Canal, and all other Rights, Powers, and Authorities now or at any Time heretofore possessed or enjoyed by the said Company of Proprietors, and shall and may henceforth undertake and exercise the Management and Administration of the Crinan Canal, and of every thing connected therewith, in as full and ample a Manner as now appertains to them with regard to the Caledonian Canal under or by virtue of the said last-mentioned Acts and of this Act; and from and after the passing of this Act all Right of Management or Interference, and all Interest of any other Parties whatsoever, of or in the Crinan Canal, and the Works and Appurtenances thereof or belonging thereto, and the Tolls and Rates arising therefrom, shall to all Intents and Purposes, except as herein-after provided, cease and determine.

'Acts by the Office of Her Majesty's Paymaster General, constituted under an Act passed in the Sixth 'Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth:' Be it therefore enacted by the Power to Treasury to abolish Offices of Paymasters of Exchequer Bills and of Civil Services.

Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this Act it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, or any Three or more of them, to abolish the Offices of the Paymasters of Exchequer Bills and of the Paymaster of Civil Services, and to make Provision for the Discharge of the Duties now executed in those Offices by the Office of Her Majesty's Paymaster General.

Duties of abolished Offices transferred to Paymaster General.

II. And be it enacted, That from after the Abolition of the said Offices, and the Transfer of the Duties thereof to Her Majesty's Paymaster General, all the Interests, Titles, Powers, Authorities, Privileges, and Duties now vested in, or either by Law or Usage exercised by, the said Offices so abolished respectively, shall be and the same are hereby declared to be transferred to and vested in and may be exercised by the said Paymaster General, or by such Person or Persons as may be duly authorized from Time to Time to perform the Duties of such Paymaster General, in as full and ample a Manner to all Intents and Purposes as they were vested in and might have been exercised by the Paymasters of Exchequer Bills and Paymaster of Civil Services respectively.

[31st August 1848.]

3 & 4 W. 4. c. 27. 6 & 7 Vict. c. 54.

'WHEREAS an Act was passed in the Third and Fourth Years of the Reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled An Act for the Limitation of Actions and Suits relating to Real Property, and for simplifying the Remedies for trying the Rights thereto, it was, amongst other things, enacted, that after the Thirty-first Day of December One thousand eight hundred and thirty-three no Person should bring any Quare impedit or other Action or any Suit to enforce a Right to present to or bestow any Ecclesiastical Benefice, as the Patron thereof, after the Expiration of One hundred Years from the Time at which a Clerk should have obtained Possession of such Benefice adversely to the Right of Presentation or Gift of such Person, or of some Person through whom he claims: And whereas by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the Sixth and Seventh Years of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act for extending to Ireland the Provisions not already in force there

'of an Act of the Third and Fourth Years of the Reign of the late King William the Fourth, intituled '"An Act for the Limitation of Actions and Suits relating to Real Property, and for simplifying the '"Remedies for trying the Rights thereto," and to explain and amend the said Act, it was, amongst other 'things, thereby enacted, that after the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and forty-four 'the several Clauses and Enactments in the said first-mentioned Act and therein-before recited, relating 'to any Right to present to or bestow any Church, Vicarage, or any other Ecclesiastical Benefice, (the 'Clause thereof providing that the said Act, so far as it related to any such Right, should not extend to 'Ireland, always excepted,) should extend and apply to Ireland, and that as fully and effectually as if the 'said Clauses and Enactments were thereby repeated, substituting for the said Date of the Thirty-first 'Day of December One thousand eight hundred and thirty-three the Date of the First Day of January 'One thousand eight hundred and forty-four; and it was by the said last-mentioned Act further declared 'and enacted, that the said last-mentioned Act should not be prejudicial or available to or for any Plaintiff 'or Defendant in any Action or Suit already commenced, or on or before the said First Day of January 'One thousand eight hundred and forty-five to be commenced, relating to any Right to present to or 'bestow any Church, Vicarage, or other Ecclesiastical Benefice in Ireland: And whereas in consequence 'of the Provisions of the said Acts numerous Actions of Quare impedit and Proceedings have been 'brought and instituted, and are now depending, for the Purpose of determining the Right of Presentation 'to divers Ecclesiastical Benefices and Preferments in Ireland, by Persons whose Claims to exercise 'such Right would but for the instituting of such Proceedings have been barred by the Provisions of the 'aforesaid Acts: And whereas numerous Actions and Proceedings have been brought and instituted and 'are now pending against Archbishops and Bishops in Ireland for the Recovery of Advowsons and Rights 'of Presentation to Ecclesiastical Benefices and Preferments in their Dioceses, the Patronage whereof has 'been for long and uninterrupted Periods exercised by them and their Predecessors in right of their 'Sees, and the said Archbishops and Bishops have been and will be put to heavy Expenses in preparing 'to defend and in defending, in the said Actions and Proceedings, their Rights of Patronage for them-'selves and their Successors: And whereas by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the 'Eighth and Ninth Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act to enable Archbishops 8 & 9 Vict. c. 51. 'and Bishops in Ireland to charge their Sees with the Costs incurred by them in defence of their Rights 'of Patronage, in certain Cases, and also to enable Tenants for Life and other Persons having limited 'Interests in Estates in Ireland to charge said Estates with the Costs incurred by them in asserting their 'Rights to Ecclesiastical Patronage, in certain Cases, it was (amongst other things) enacted, that Arch-'bishops and Bishops might, subject to the Regulations therein provided, charge such Expenses on the 'Estates of their respectives Sees, and it was further enacted, that Plaintiffs in Quare impedit, under 'Family Settlement or otherwise entitled to a Life Estate or other limited Interest in the Advowsons or 'Rights of Presentation to the Ecclesiastical Benefices to recover which the said Writs have been sued 'out and Proceedings instituted, might, under certain Restrictions, charge the reasonable Costs and 'Expenses incurred by them in prosecuting such Claims upon the Estates of those who would be entitled 'in remainder to such Advowsons or Rights of Presentation: And whereas the Prosecution of such 'Suits is attended with very great and ruinous Expense, and the Possession of the present Incumbents 'of many of the said Benefices is uncertain and insecure, and it is just and expedient, for the Purpose of 'avoiding Expense, and quieting the Possession of Incumbents in their Benefices, to enable Archbishops 'and Bishops, and Persons who, under Family Settlements or otherwise, would only be entitled to a Life 'Estate or other limited Interest in such Advowsons or Rights of Presentation, to compromise their 'Claims to the Patronage of such Ecclesiastical Benefices:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall and may be lawful for any Archbishop or Bishop in Ireland who may be a Defendant in any Action of Quare impedit or other Action or Suit now pending, and who may claim the Ecclesiastical Benefice which is the Subject of such Suit, as the Patron thereof, for and on behalf of himself and Successors, and for any Person or Persons by whom or on whose Behalf any such Writ of Quare impedit has been sued out, and who, under Family Settlement or otherwise, would only be entitled to a Life Estate or other limited Interest in the Advowson to recover which such Writ has been sued out, not only on behalf of themselves, and their respective Heirs, Executors, and Administrators, but also on behalf of every Person entitled in reversion, remainder, or expectancy after them, or in defeazance of the Estate of such Parties, to compromise their conflicting Claims to any such Advowson or Advowsons.

Power to Archbishops and Bishops in Ireland to compromise conflicting Claims to Patronage of Advowsons.

II. And be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the said Parties in such Case as aforesaid to provide by the Terms of any such Compromise that any particular Advowson or Advowsons or Right or Rights of Patronage of or to any Ecclesiastical Benefice or Benefices in Ireland shall belong absolutely to any Archbishop or Bishop and his Successors, in consideration of such Archbishop or Bishop, on behalf of himself and Successors, agreeing that any other Advowson or Advowsons, Right or Rights of Patronage to any other Ecclesiastical Benefice or Benefices in Ireland, shall belong to any such Person or Persons as aforesaid, according to such Estate or Interest as he, she, or they may respectively claim therein, under Family Settlement or otherwise, or for the Parties to such Compromise to provide that the alternate Right or Rights of Presentation or Patronage to any such Ecclesiastical Benefice or Benefices shall belong to any Archbishop or Bishop and his Successors on the one hand, and on the other to any Person or Persons, according to such Estate or Interest as he, she, or they may respectively be entitled to or claim, under Family Settlement or otherwise, or to make any other Arrangement or Provision Parties to provide by the Terms of such Compromise the Rights to certain Patronage.

And be it enacted, That where any such Compromise is to be carried into effect under the Provisions of this Act an Instrument in Writing containing the Terms of such proposed Compromise (including the Terms contained in the Provision next herein-after mentioned), and in the Case of a Bishop being a Defendant having endorsed upon such Instrument the Approbation of the Archbishop entitled to exercise Archiepiscopal Jurisdiction in the Province in which the Parish or Parishes the Subject of such Compromise is or are situate, or in case any Archbishop shall be a Defendant, having endorsed thereon the Approbation of Her Majesty's Attorney General for Ireland, shall be lodged in the Council Office of Dublin Castle, and thereupon it shall and may be lawful for the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, with the Consent of the major Part of Her Majesty's Privy Council of Ireland in Council assembled (Six at least assenting), to take the Matter of such Instrument into their Consideration, and to make an Order approving or disapproving of the Terms of such Compromise; and in case such Compromise shall be approved as aforesaid it shall be lawful for the Parties, upon the Production of a Copy of such Order before the Court of Common Pleas in Ireland, to proceed to have such Compromise carried into effect by a Rule or Order of such Court, to be made upon Consent of the Parties hereby enabled to enter into such Compromise, and (if required by the said Court) upon Affidavit or Affidavits of such Facts and Circumstances as the said Court may require for their Information; and every such Rule or Order shall, when made, be conclusive Evidence of the Title of the Person or Persons who shall be thereby declared to be the Patron or Patrons of every such Advowson or Advowsons.

If Lord Lieutenant, &c. approve of Compromise, Parties may obtain an Order from Common Pleas to carry the same into effect.

Incumbents to retain Possession notwithstanding Compromise.

IV. And be it enacted, That every such Compromise shall provide that every Incumbent in possession of any Ecclesiastical Benefice at the Time of the passing of this Act shall hold the same as if he had been presented or collated thereto by the true and undoubted Patron thereof, notwithstanding that by any such Compromise it shall be agreed that the Advowson of the Benefice whereof such Incumbent is in possession shall belong to any Person or Persons other than the Person or Persons by whom such Incumbent shall have been presented or collated to such Benefice.

As to Payment of Expenses of Compromise.

Provided always, and be it enacted, That the Costs and Expenses of such Compromise incurred or to be incurred shall be charged by the said Archbishop and Bishop, and by said Tenants for Life, or other Person or Persons having limited Estates or Interest, in such Manner and Form as is provided by said recited Act passed in the Eighth and Ninth Years of Her present Majesty.

Act may be amended, &c.

VI. And be it enacted, That this Act may be amended or repealed by any Act to be passed in this present Session of Parliament.

assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall be lawful to use printed Copies, or Copies partly printed and partly written, of all Indictments and Criminal Letters before the High Court of Justiciary and Circuit Courts of Justiciary in Scotland, as the principal or Record Copies of such Writs, instead of the written Copies thereof heretofore used for that Purpose: Provided always, that such printed or partly printed and partly written Copies shall be authenticated, in the Case of Indictments, by the Subscription of Her Majesty's Advocate or of One of his Deputes, and in the Case of Criminal Letters, by the Subscription of One of the Clerks of Court, according to the present Practice.

Printed Copies of Indictments, &c. may be used as Record Copies; such Copies to be authenticated.

II. 'And whereas Letters of Diligence for citing Parties, Witnesses, and Assizers are issued as a 'Matter of Course at the Instance of Her Majesty's Advocate, and according to the present Practice 'such Letters, both in the High Court and Circuit Courts of Justiciary, proceed on Bills the Deliverances 'on which require to be subscribed by One of the Judges of the said Court, which Proceeding is 'unnecessary and inconvenient:' Be it enacted, That such Bills shall hereafter be dispensed with, and such Letters of Diligence, in Cases before both the High Court and Circuit Courts of Justiciary, shall be issued by the Clerk of Court to Her Majesty's Advocate, on Exhibition of the Indictment on which such Letters of Diligence are required to be raised, or a Copy thereof, signed by the Crown Agent for the Time being; and it shall not be necessary that such Letters pass the Signet of the said Court: Provided always, that a Roll or Minute Book of all such Letters of Diligence, whether issued for the High Court or Circuit Courts of Justiciary, shall be kept by the Clerk of Justiciary.

Provisions in 7 & 8 Vict. c. 65. as to Enrolments, and examined and certified Copies thereof, being Evidence of original Instruments, to apply to other Instruments duly enrolled.

VI. 'And whereas by the herein-before recited Act passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the 'Seventh and Eighth Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act to enable the Council 'of His Royal Highness Albert Edward Prince of Wales to sell and exchange Lands and enfranchise 'Copyholds, Parcel of the Possessions of the Duchy of Cornwall, and for other Purposes, it is declared 'and provided, that Enrolments or examined Copies of Enrolments of Deeds, Certificates, Receipts, or 'other Instruments, appearing or purporting to have been made, given, or executed under the Authority 'of that Act, or of any Act theretofore passed relating to the Lands or Possessions of the said Duchy, 'shall be admissible in Evidence for the Purposes therein specified; and it is expedient that such 'Provision should be amended, and made to extend and apply to other Instruments duly enrolled among 'the Records of the Duchy, and that the Proof thereof should be further facilitated:' Be it enacted, That where any Deed, Certificate, Receipt, or other Instrument relating to the Lands or Possessions of the said Duchy shall have been duly enrolled in the Office of the said Duchy, the Enrolment in the Books of the said Office, or an examined Copy of such Enrolment, or a Certificate purporting to set forth a true Copy of the whole or of Part thereof, and purporting to be signed and certified by the Keeper of the Records of the Duchy for the Time being, shall, in the Absence of Evidence to the contrary, and without producing the Original, or calling any attesting Witness, and (in the Case of a certified Copy) without Proof, other than the Production of such Certificate, that such certified Copy is in fact a true Copy, be admitted by and before all Courts and Justices and in all legal Proceedings to be Proof of such original Instrument or Enrolment thereof, or of so much thereof as the said certified Copy purports to set forth, and that the Original was duly made, granted, given, or executed by the Parties thereto.

In Actions for the Recovery of Small Debts or Demands in the Stannary Court, Trials under 6 & 7 W. 4. c. 106. to be by a Jury of Five instead of Twelve.

VII. 'And whereas by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the Sixth and Seventh 'Years of the Reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled An Act to make Provision 'for the better and more expeditious Administration of Justice in the Stannaries of Cornwall, and for 'enlarging the Jurisdiction and improving the Practice and Proceedings in the Court of the said 'Stannaries, Provision is made for the Trial of Causes pending in the same Court by a Jury of Twelve 'Persons: And whereas Actions prosecuted in the said Court for the Recovery of Small Debts are 'regulated by special Rules of Practice differing from the Rules applicable to other Actions on the 'Common Law Side of the Court, and the Matters in issue between the Parties to such Actions may be 'well and conveniently tried by a less Number of Jurors:' Be it therefore enacted, That in all such Actions commenced after the passing of this Act for the Recovery of such Small Debts the Number of Jurors impannelled and sworn to try any Issue shall be Five only, and not Twelve, and the Jurors so sworn shall be required to give an unanimous Verdict: Provided always, that no Debt or Demand shall be deemed to be a Small Debt within the Intent and Meaning of this Enactment which shall exceed the Sum of Twenty Pounds or such other Sum as shall hereafter be determined by any Act of Parliament to be a Small Debt within the Jurisdiction of the County Courts established by an Act passed in the Session of of Parliament holden in the Ninth and Tenth Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act for the more easy Recovery of Small Debts and Demands in England. 9 & 10 Vict. c. 95.

VIII. 'And whereas it will not be necessary hereafter to summon so large a Number of Persons to 'attend and serve as Jurors at the Sittings of the said Court:' Be it enacted, That the Registrar of the said Court shall in future cause Thirty-six Persons named in the Jurors Book to be so summoned, and no more: Provided always, that, save and except as aforesaid, nothing herein contained shall be taken to alter the Practice of the Court, but all and every the Powers, Provisions, and Authorities contained in the last-recited Act touching Jury Process and Proceedings on Trials by Jury shall remain in full Force, and be applicable and applied as well to Trials by a Jury of Five as by a Jury of Twelve Persons. Thirty-six Jurors only to be summoned in future. All Powers, &c. as to Jury Process to remain in force.

IX. 'And whereas no adequate Provision now exists for the due Appointment of Bailiffs of the said 'Court:' Be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Vice Warden for the Time being to appoint from Time to Time a competent Number of fit and responsible Persons to be Bailiffs of the said Court, for the Service and Execution of all Process on the Common Law Side thereof, and Process of Attachment in Equity, who shall give such Security for the due Performance of their Duties as shall appear to the Vice Warden sufficient in that Behalf, and shall hold their Offices during his Pleasure, and be entitled to demand and receive all lawful Fees due to them in virtue of their Office of Bailiff; and all the Powers, Provisions, and Enactments of an Act passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the Seventh and Eighth Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act for regulating the Bailiffs of Inferior Courts, so far as the same touches and concerns the Publication of Lists of the Names and Abodes of such Bailiffs, and of the Fees allowed to them by Law, the Penalties for taking undue Fees, the Remedies against Bailiffs for Extortion, Misconduct, or not duly paying or accounting for Money levied, and the Penalty for assaulting Bailiffs in the Execution of their Duty, or rescuing Persons or Goods taken or levied under Process, shall be held and taken to apply and extend to the Court of the Vice Warden of the Stannaries, and to the Bailiffs appointed under the Authority of this Act; and all Constables and Peace Officers shall, when required thereto, be aiding and assisting in the Execution of Process by the said Bailiffs within their several Jurisdictions: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to restrain the Vice Warden from making from Time to Time such Rules and Orders touching the Office, Duty, and Fees of Bailiffs as are not repugnant to this or any other Act of Parliament. X. And because the Provisions of divers Acts of Parliament of late made and passed for the Relief of Sheriffs and other Officers against adverse Claims do not extend to the Court of the Vice Warden of the Stannaries, by reason whereof the Bailiffs of the said Court will be exposed to greater Hazard and Expense than similar Officers in other Courts, be it therefore enacted, That all the Powers, Provisions, and Enactments of an Act passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the First and Second Years of the Reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled An Act to enable Courts of Law to give Relief against adverse Claims made upon Persons having no Interest on the Subject of such Claims, so far as the same touches and concerns the Relief and Protection of Sheriffs and other Officers in the Execution of Process against Goods and Chattels, and the entering of Record the Proceedings taken under that Act, and the Force and Effect of Rules and Orders so entered, and the issuing of Execution for taxed Costs, and the Fees for executing the same, shall be held and taken to apply and extend to the Court of the said Vice Warden and to the Bailiffs of the said Court so appointed as aforesaid; and it shall be lawful for the Vice Warden, or for the Registrar of the said Court, whether the Court be sitting or not, to make Rules and Orders and to exercise the Powers and Authorities contained in the said Act for the Relief and Protection of such Bailiffs, and, with the Consent of the Execution Creditor and adverse Claimant in any Case, their Attornies or Agents, to dispose of such Claims on the Merits, and determine the same in a summary Manner. Provisions of 1 & 2 W. 4. c. 58. for the Relief of Sheriffs against adverse Claims to extend to the Vice Warden's Court and the Bailiffs thereof.

XI. 'And whereas by the before-recited Act passed at the Session of Parliament holden in the Sixth 'and Seventh Years of the Reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth the Vice Warden is 'authorized to appoint a fit and proper Person to act as Prothonotary or Assistant Registrar in the said 'Court, with the yearly Salary of Two hundred Pounds, and it is expedient that a new Arrangement 'should be made with respect to the future Discharge of the Duties of such Office:' Be it enacted, That when and so soon as the said Office shall become vacant by Death, Resignation, or otherwise, it shall and may be lawful for the Vice Warden for the Time being to appoint by Writing under the Seal of his Court Two fit and proper Persons, who shall hold their Offices at the Will of the Vice Warden, to be Clerks of the said Court, and as such Clerks to do and execute, under the Direction of the Vice Warden, and in aid of the Registrar, all the Duties now performed by the said Prothonotary or Assistant Registrar at and for the several yearly Salaries of One hundred and twenty Pounds and Eighty Pounds respectively, such Salaries to be payable and paid at the Times and in the Manner and out of the Funds provided in and by the last-mentioned Act for the Payment of the Salary of the Prothonotary or Assistant Registrar. The Office of Prothonotary when vacant to be suppressed, and the Duties to be performed by Two Clerks.

XII. And for the better Protection of the Officers of the Vice Warden's Court in the Performance of their Duties, be it enacted, That all Actions brought in the Superior or other Courts against a Judge, Registrar, Bailiff, or other Officer of the Court of the Vice Warden of the Stannaries, or against others acting in aid of them, for anything done in execution of the Process or by the Authority of the said Court, shall be commenced within Three Calendar Months next after the committing of the Act or Grievance complained of, and not afterwards; and it shall be competent for the Defendant in any such Action to justify, if need be, by alleging generally in his Plea or Avowry that the Act or Matter complained Actions against Officers to be commenced within Three Months, and short Forms of Pleading to be admitted in such Actions.

Property provided for Use of Stannary Court vested in Duchy of Cornwall.

XIII. And be it enacted and declared, That all Personal Property, Goods, Chattels, and Effects whatsoever, provided or to be provided for the Use of the said Court, or for the Use of the Vice Warden for the Time being, or other Officer of the said Court, shall vest in His Royal Highness the Duke of Cornwall in right of His Duchy.

Certain of the Provisions in 7 & 8 Vict. c. 65. and in this Act relating to Enrolments, and examined and certified Copies thereof, extended to the Possessions of Her Majesty in right of the Duchy of Lancaster.

and by the same Act it is also 'enacted, that in all Cases where the Enrolment of any Deed or other Instrument, or Minute or Docu-'ment, before the said Keeper of the Records, has been or shall be omitted or delayed beyond the Period 'provided for the Enrolment and Entry thereof respectively, it shall be lawful for the Council of His 'said Royal Highness, or others the Commissioners for managing the Affairs of the said Duchy for the 'Time being, for every reasonable Cause to them shown for the Omission or Delay, and they are thereby 'authorized and empowered, to permit the making of any such Enrolment or Entry nunc pro tunc, and 'the same respectively when made under such Authority shall be as valid and effectual as if made within 'the Period therein-before limited for that Purpose: And whereas it is expedient that the several Pro-'visions and Enactments in the said recited Act of the Seventh and Eighth Years of the Reign of Her 'said Majesty, intituled An Act to enable the Council of His Royal Highness Albert Edward Prince of 'Wales to sell and exchange Lands and enfranchise Copyholds, Parcel of the Possessions of the Duchy 'of Cornwall, to purchase other Lands, and for other Purposes, and in this Act, or one of them, 'expressly or by reference contained, relating to the Enrolment of Deeds, and to the Time within which 'such Enrolment shall be made, and declaring and providing that Enrolments, or examined Copies of 'Enrolments, Deeds, Certificates, Receipts, or other Instruments or Certificates, purporting to set forth 'a true Copy of the whole or of Part thereof, and purporting to be signed and certified by the Keeper 'of the Records of the Duchy for the Time being, shall, in the Absence of Evidence to the contrary, 'and without producing the Original, or calling any attesting Witness, and in the Case of a certified 'Copy without Proof, other than the Production of such Certificate, that such certified Copy is in fact 'a true Copy, be admitted, by and before all Courts and Justices, and in all legal Proceedings, to be 'Proof of such original Instrument or Enrolment thereof, or of so much thereof as the said certified 'Copy purports to set forth, and that the Original was duly made, granted, given, or executed by the 'Parties thereto, and authorizing the Council of His said Royal Highness, or others the Commissioners 'for managing the Affairs of the said Duchy for the Time being, to permit the making of any Enrolments 'or Entry nunc pro tunc, shall be extended to Deeds and other Instruments relating to Manors, 'Messuages, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments the Possessions of Her Majesty in right of Her 'Duchy of Lancaster, and Enrolments of such Deeds and other Instruments, and certified Copies of 'such Enrolments or any Parts thereof:' Be it therefore enacted, That the said Provisions, Declarations, and Enactments in the said last-mentioned Act and in this Act or in one of the same Acts expressly or by reference contained relating to the aforesaid several Acts, Matters, and Things in this present Clause or Provision mentioned or referred to, shall be and the same are hereby made applicable to Deeds, Certificates, Receipts, or other Instruments hereafter to be executed, made, or signed relating to Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments now or at any Time hereafter Parcel of the Possessions of Her said Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, in right of Her said Duchy of Lancaster, and to Enrolments of such Deeds, Certificates, Receipts, or other Instruments, and certified Copies of such Enrolments or Parts thereof, as fully as the same Provisions, Declarations, and Enactments are by the said last-recited Act and this Act, or either of them, made applicable to Deeds, Certificates, Receipts, or other Instruments relating to any Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, Parcel of the Possessions of the Duchy of Cornwall, and Enrolments of such Deeds, Certificates, Receipts, and other Instruments, and certified Copies thereof or any Part thereof, and as fully as if the Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments of or belonging to Her said Majesty in right of Her said Duchy of Lancaster, and Deeds, Certificates, Receipts, and other Instruments relating to the same Hereditaments, and Enrolments of such Deeds, Certificates, Receipts, and other Instruments, and certified Copies
